- Possibility of extension
- 50' West facing garden

A charming, late Victorian terraced house with well proportioned accommodation just short of 1200 square feet arranged over two floors. Bright, airy space retains much character and offers the possibility, subject to usual planning applications, to create a super family home, on a much admired road with 50 ' west facing garden. There are currently three bedrooms on the upper floors with a large, through reception room and well fitted kitchen/diner below. There is access from both rooms on the ground floor to the garden and a handy storage cellar under the entrance hall. Bouverie Road runs north directly off Stoke Newington Church Street and therefore within easy access of local school, the vibrant selection of local shops, bars and restaurants together with regular bus and overground rail services.
